Statement

Rafael is a self-taught photographer and experimental video artist, and at the early 80s he co-founded in Madrid the Image Gallery, dedicated to photography.

Since 1988 works as a photographer and video artist, exhibiting their creations in these disciplines since 2005. He has specialized in fashion, portrait, corporate photography and advertising campaigns and has worked for the best brands and published in media such as Vogue, Elle, El País Semanal, Cosmopolitan, among others.

He has extensive experience as a teacher of university courses and teacher's training courses in the area of the image. He currently teaches at the school PIC.A. Rafael is an expert in history of photography and video creation, teaches numerous workshops of these subjects in public and private institutions and universities.

His video work Souls Of the Shadows was screened in Moscow NCCA in 2009 and exhibited as video installation in 2010 in the CCAA Gijon. Souls Of The Shadows is a reflection on the history and the defeat of the generations in front of the power. It is part of a trilogy with Slaves and Dogs.

Currently Rafael is working in several projects simultaneously like Dead Skin, Lost Paradises, and Women In Wrong Places.

His work was at ARCOmadrid 1983 and PHotoEspaña 2000, in 2005 he exhibited at the gallery Seno Guerrero in Ferrara (Italy); and in 2009, at the Metropolitan Museum, the Gallery Nights in Buenos Aires and at the Municipal Museum in Trelew, Chubut, also in Argentina.

Rafael Roa's work has been awarded with the First Prize Scholarship Workshops of Contemporary Art (Granada, 1986), the Second FotoPres Award in the category of "Sports" (1990) and the Prize of the First Biennial of Contemporary Art Chapingo (Mexico City, 2008). His work is in the permanent collections of the Valencian Institute of Modern Art, the Andalusian Center of Photography (Almería) and the National Center for Contemporary Arts in Moscow (Russia).

Sony Spain sponsors Rafael Roa, who works his projects with Sony equipment.
